

Veteran. Educator. Motivational
Speaker. Award-winning Playwright.
Best-selling Author.

Rebekah L. Pierce

A much sought after speaker for her transparency and authenticity, Rebekah L. Pierce is an avid playwright, screenwriter and author with her works focusing on contemporary women and their search for purpose and identity. In 2013, she opened The Pierce Agency, a literary and publishing services agency that works with aspiring and emerging authors and playwrights in bringing professionally edited and designed works to the market. In 2016, she merged that company with RLP Productions, a production company dedicated to educating and entertaining the general public on the social, political and economic context of African American and American history via film, theatre and other various artistic platforms. Rebekah speaks on a variety of empowerment topics for corporations, nonprofits and private entities.

INSPIRATIONAL/ MOTIVATIONAL TOPICS

- Intrapersonal Intelligence: Kryptonite Killed Superwoman
- Stepping Out on Faith When the Odds are Stacked Against You
 - Creating a Legacy in Business & in the Community
- Reclaiming Your Joy: The Journey to Personal Spiritual Transformation, and much more

ACADEMIC TOPICS

- The Gospel of James Baldwin: The Journey to God's People
- History of African American Publishing
- Rhetoric of 20th Century Artist in the African American Community: The Harlem Renaissance, the Black Arts Movement, and the Rap/Hip Hop Culture

Booking/Interview Contact Info: Rebekah L. Pierce
Author, Entrepreneur & Speaker
www.rebekahlpierce.com / www.rlpproductions.com